G. T. Wentworth has assumed control of Parker and Updegraff's skimming station at Huntsville.

Sunday school picnics are the order of the day. The United Brethren held forth at Hazan's grove Tuesday and Hopewell Union Sunday school had a magnificent time Wednesday.

The Hopewell school house has been removed to a more suitable site, repainted, replastered and otherwise rejuvenated until it is a thing of beauty and joy.

Castleton.

We are having very pleasant weather for August.

John Devonish and Perry Purcell, of Chicago are visiting friends here.

Castleton's new creamery opened last week with Thos Fall as proprietor.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, a boy also Mr. and Mrs. Bake Tharp a boy.

Mrs. Asher and daughter Sadie are visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

The wheat and oats are turning much better than was expected in this neighborhood.

Mr. Forsha has started his mill on his ranch east of Castleton and is turning out a good grade of flour.

Miss Effie Holcomb, who has been sick with the fever for sometime, has so far recovered as to be out of bed.

Lightning struck Frank McNair's house last Sunday, shocking Mrs. McNair so badly as to render her unconscious for an hour.

Ad Welber, our little three foot road-runner, has graded the road south of town till it looks like a new race track.

When little fellows can do as good a job as that the big ones ought not to stand around in the shade and eat water-melons.

A party of excursionists from Hutchinson visited our neighborhood a few weeks ago, making the grove north of the river their camping place. The program for the day consisted of swinging, bicycling, bathing, flirting, and other amusements too numerous to mention. We hope they enjoyed it as much as we did.

Take Notice.

Banks will close on labor day.

A Good Move.

The Universalists, of Haven, will shortly erect an auditorium in that prosperous village to be used for church services. It will be open to any other denomination when not used by themselves. It will also be at the service of the city for all public meetings.

Skipped.

J. A. Buck, who has been operating a feather renovator on north Main street, skipped the town last week leaving many unpaid bills. His chief helper, Mr. Geo. Geary was left in the lurch to the tune of $78, who ran an attachment on the outfit and who will operate the plant in the future.

For Commissioner.

Hayne township populists present this week one of their number in the person of M. G. Hackler as a candidate for county commissioner. For Mr. Hackler we have only the best of feelings. He is a highly respected citizen, a true man and a thorough populist.

Lusk in Limbo Again.

The Associated press reports that A. J. Lusk was arrested at Portland, Oregon last Wednesday on the charge of embezzling $80,000. Lusk went from here to Mexico and got in trouble there by drawing a check on a Hutchinson bank which was not honored, but through the assistance of the government counsel to that country he was set free. It is supposed that the arrest is on the same charge that Menke and Chapman were indicted under some months ago.

Geo. McKinstry & Co., (in with Devier) are closing out sulky plows at less than cost.

A Sad Death.

Will Arthurs, a young man, residing with his parents and for several years an apprentice in the tailor shop of E. O. Richmond died suddenly of heart disease last Thursday evening at the home of his brother at Mt. Vernon, Ill. The remains were brought here and the funeral was held Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church under the auspices of Company E of which he was a member. Will was a steady hard working boy, universally liked by all who knew him.

B. O. Davidson to Leave.

The firm of Davidson & Williams has been dissolved and Mr. Davidson will shortly leave the city and locate in some eastern city. Mr. Williams will continue the business here. Everybody hates to see "Dave" leave here, as he is one of the best fellows in town.

Good Corn.

Chas Evans, of Center township, has 120 acres of the best corn in the county. Samples were left at this office last Monday, this general average of which is eleven inches in length and nine inches in circumference. While Col. Henry Hartford may have a few ears of good corn, we doubt if the best of it comes up to Mr. Evans' smallest ears.

Married.

R. F. McDermid, proprietor of the Eagle Grocery of this city, was married last Monday at Mlyvern, Arkansas to Miss Annie B. McCullum. They left that place for an extended trip throughout the south. The GAZETTE extends congratulations, and it Bob makes a good husband as he has groceryman he will be all right.
